TIME FOR A CHANGE?

Giant stalagmites rise from the floors of many of the great caves across America. This amazing phenomenon is produced by the constant dripping of single drops of water. Each drop falls, evaporates, and leaves behind a tiny deposit of sediment. A little at a time, this sediment builds up until an impressive mound is left behind.

Our lives might be compared to these stalagmites. Each rejection of the gospel leaves behind a tiny drop of indifference. With each rejection, response becomes more difficult. This "hardening of the heart" is that about which the writer of Hebrews warns, saying, "Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion" (Hb. 3:15, ESV).

Though often applied to others, this lesson is urgently needed in the life of every Christian. There are changes needed in each of us to bring our lives into greater conformity with the teachings of our Lord. Opportunities for change come our way on a daily basis (2 Cor. 6:2). But, turning the page of the calendar into a new year, often creates a moment of reflection and self-examination. Why not use this as your impetus for making needed changes in your life? Whether we make them at the beginning of the year or not, resolutions are necessary for all who are striving after the image of Christ.

--Glen Elliott--

Bible Questions:

1. Who mixed the blood of the Galileans with their sacrifices?
2. Because they did not have proper understanding at their first baptism, how many disciples at Ephesus had to be baptized again into the name of Jesus?
3. Why could Jesus have not been a priest under the Law of Moses?

THANK YOU CARD

Please go by the bulletin board in the hallway to see a thank you card from Merrell & Patsy Story

Prayer Requests

*Jackie Horton's sister, Cathy Brooks, is still in the Covenant Hospital in Lubbock, TX. She is doing much better and may get to come home Friday (the 28th). Thank you so much for your prayers - Jackie & Lynda Horton.

*Remember Joyce Hines as she heals from cracked vertebrae and a procedure to help with this.

*Our sympathy goes out to Jim Bell in the passing of his cousin, Jimmy Bartley. He was a member at the Mt. Vernon congregation.

Continue to keep Patsy Story, Dana Taylor, (Jerry Garrett's niece), Thelma Davis, and Eric McNulty in your prayers.*

Pick up a prayer request sheet on the table in the foyer.
