LOST CHRISTIANS

Can a Christian so sin as to be eternally lost? This is an important question, considering the fact that so many believe and teach that it is impossible for a Christian to be lost. What do the Scriptures say about this crucial topic?

Paul's letter to the Galatians was written to Christians who were being misled by false teachers who were preaching a "different gospel" (Gal. 1:6-10). Their "gospel" was not "the gospel", but an admixture of the gospel of Christ and the teaching of Judaism. Some were insisting that those who became Christians must also submit to the rite of circumcision in order to be saved. In regard to this, Paul writes, "I testify again to every man who receives circumcision, that he is under obligation to keep the whole Law. You have been severed from Christ, you who are seeking to be justified by law; you have fallen from grace" (Gal. 5:2-3). Can a Christian fall from grace? Paul, writing by inspiration of the Holy Spirit, certainly seemed to think so.

Is it possible for Christians to fall away from Christ and be eternally lost? The writer of Hebrews spoke of some Christians who has fallen away, saying that they had again crucified to themselves "the Son of God, and put Him to open shame" (Heb. 6:6). Later, in chapter ten, he spoke of those who no longer had a sacrifice for their sins because they were sinning willfully after having received the knowledge of the truth (vs. 26). Peter spoke of those who had escaped the defilements of the world by the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ saying that they had again become entangled in sin and overcome and that the last state for them was worse than the first (2 Pet. 2:20). If that is not clear enough, consider the words of Paul in 1 Corinthians 10:11 where he warns the Christians at Corinth, saying, "Therefore let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall."

It is certainly possible, then, that Christians can fall away from the Lord and be eternally condemned. But, does such have to be the case? Of course not! We have abundant access to the spiritual resources we need to remain faithful to our Lord. Nevertheless, to take the position that we cannot fall from grace is false and counterproductive to the practice of godly living. Much of the New Testament was written to correct doctrinal and moral difficulties within the church which threatened the spiritual well-being of its members. If it is impossible for a Christian to fall away from the Lord, then the New Testament is filled with unnecessary warnings. It is precisely because a Christian can be lost that we must study and obey the teachings of Christ. Only in doing so from the heart can we be saved by grace through faith (Rom. 6:17; Eph. 2:8-9).
