GIVE IT AWAY!

Solomon offers great insight into what it means to live a rich and meaningful life. He says, "Cast your bread on the surface of the waters, for you will find it after many days" (Eccl. 11:1). The principle of reciprocity comes into play in many walks of life: in giving to meet the needs of the poor, in sharing the gospel with the lost, and in loving our neighbor as ourselves.

In regard to giving, the Bible is filled with examples that show us that, in giving, we are the greater recipients. Jesus says, "Give, and it will be given to you. They pour into your lap a good measure—pressed down, shaken together, and running over. For by your standard of measure it will be measured to you in return" (Lk. 6:38). Jesus tells us that "It is more blessed to give than to receive" (Acts 20:35). His faithful servant, the apostle Paul, says that the one "who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and [the one] who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully" (2 Cor. 9:6). Give as God teaches and experience the great blessings which attend such giving.

We might think of evangelism as giving away our faith. It is in sharing our faith with others that our own faith is strengthened. Conversely, it is in keeping our faith to ourselves that it becomes cold and lifeless (Mt. 24:12). One of the most effective ways for us to reach out to others is by showing them how important our faith is to us. When Debbie Fields, the founder of the cookie company that bears her name, started in business, she went several days without a customer. Then, she baked a tray of cookies and went out on the sidewalk and began giving them away. It wasn't long before people followed her back into her store to buy her cookies. Today, with more than 700 stores, she still uses the same technique. Don't hide your faith under a basket, show others how much Jesus means to you and folks will soon be asking questions about your hope (1 Pet. 3:15).

A familiar childhood song tells us that love is nothing until we give it away. Then, having given it away, we end up having more. Love replenishes itself in the act of giving. Love dries up in a selfish heart that refuses to share with others. We have a choice—give it away or keep it to ourselves. Giving is the better way for us and for all those with whom we come into contact. Be like Jesus and be a giver today!

Prayer Requests

- *Debbie Freeman’s recent body scan showed no cancer. They are thankful for the good news. Please continue to keep Brandon Beck in your prayers with the loss of his best friend.
- *Our sympathy goes out to the family of Jeanne Haithcote in her passing on Tuesday. Jeanne was a long time member here and the grandmother of Amy Drewry.
- *Stephanie Phillips is having pain and would like prayers that doctors can figure out what is going on and find something to ease her pain.
- *Lavonne Duncan will be having a stress test this week.
- *Thank you for all the prayers for Helen Swindle’s sister, Sharion. She is home from the hospital but needs prayers to regain her strength.
- *Keep Rod Wilson in your prayers as he waits for his blood to get where it needs to be before having surgery.
- *Continue to keep Lou Dillard; Ashley Ferguson; Terri Massa; Michael O’Brien; Jason Elliott; Rick Camp mother, Donna; Kathy Camp’s dad, Charles; Joyce Hines; Jim Burkett; Marilyn Koone; Dorothy Tatum, and Ted & Barbara Knight in your prayers.
- *Pick up a prayer request sheet on the table in the foyer.

Made for Another World

C.S. Lewis once wrote, “If we find ourselves with a desire that nothing in this world can satisfy, the most probable explanation is that we were made for another world.”

We know that we were made for another world. Scripture teaches it. Our own experience testifies to it. The Psalmist wrote, “As a deer pants for flowing streams, so pants my soul for you, O God. My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and appear before God?” (Ps. 42:1-2).

This world is not all that there is to reality. All of us will be somewhere forever (Matt. 25:31-46; John 5:28-29; Heb. 9:27).

Do you find yourself with a desire that nothing in this world can satisfy? Rest assured that such is because you were created by a loving God who longs to welcome you into his presence (Luke 15:20). You were made for another world.
