The Anchor of the Soul

A ship securely anchored seldom drifts from its harbor and a life firmly fastened to the will of God is not easily shaken from its moorings. In spite of life's uncertainties, there is a God upon whom we can depend. He inspires hope in the human heart, saying, "I will never leave you, nor will I ever forsake you..." (Heb. 13:5). Such hope is the Christian's spiritual anchor. The inspired writer offers a most beautiful description of Christian hope when he says: "This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and one which enters within the veil where Jesus has entered as a forerunner for us, having become a high priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek" (Heb. 6:19-20). Ours is a hope both sure and steadfast.

Our hope is sure because it is grounded in the word of God. Jesus says, "Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words shall not pass away" (Mt. 24:35). Because the word of Christ will be our standard of judgment on the last day (Jn. 12:48), it is imperative that we closely and carefully study and apply its teachings.

Our hope is steadfast because it is inseparably connected to the nature and presence of God. The nature of God provides strong encouragement in as much as it is impossible for God to lie (Heb. 6:18). We can trust God's promises completely. Our hope is anchored in heaven, where Jesus has entered as a forerunner for us and always lives to make intercession on our behalf (Heb. 6:20; 7:25).

As Christians, we do not need to despair in the storms of life. We have an anchor to keep the soul, one that is both sure and steadfast. Our God, who cannot lie, has promised that, if we remain faithful, we will receive the crown of life (Rev. 2:10). This is our calm assurance, a peace that passes understanding (Ph. 4:7).

Prayer Requests

*Our sympathy goes out to Seth Fisher's brother, Luke, in the sudden passing of his wife, Amber. Prayers for the family including their children, Kason and Kylen. We will post their address on the bulletin board in the hallway if you'd like to send a card or note.

*Our sympathy goes out to Pamela Stewart and family, in the passing of Bill. He passed away due to covid related issues. Pamela's address will be posted on the bulletin board.

*Jason Elliott is at the Mayo Clinic in Minnesota.

*Prayers for Michael O'Brien as he continues chemo treatments.

*Janet Rhyne is home - prayers for her continued recovery. Dave had a surgical procedure and should be home next week.

*Continue to keep Stephanie Phillips; Nora Smith; Patsy Story; Helen Swindle's sisters, Sharion & Shirley; Joyce Hines; and Ted & Barbara Knight in your prayers.

Everyone is invited to a Diaper and Wipes Shower for Millie Ross, newborn daughter of Nick and Stephanie Baker, in the Outreach Center following Sunday evening worship on July 18th. Please bring sandwiches and chips. Drinks and dessert will be provided. Join us in a time of encouragement and fellowship. Please see Colleen Elliott if you have questions.

Steven Ashcraft will be here Sunday morning to talk about his mission work in Africa. We will have a potluck after morning services. NO 1pm service - we will have our regular 5pm service.
