Missing the Boat

The story is told about a preacher who had to rush one Sunday morning in order to make it on time for a preaching appointment. His trip involved catching a ferryboat and he was running late. So, he hurried out the front door and jumped into his car only to realize that he had forgotten his keys. When he finally arrived at the dock, the ferryboat was only a short distance away. Thinking he had missed the boat, he ran as fast as he could and jumped onto it.

“Out of breath?” asked a stranger.

“Yes,” the preacher replied. “I had to rush to catch this ferry.”

“Why?” asked the stranger “This ferry is coming into shore, not going out.”

Upon closer examination, our worries often make us look silly. Anxieties about what may happen in the future frequently have no substance in reality. Regardless of its substance, in the end, our worries often make us look as foolish as the preacher rushing to catch the incoming ferry.

Remember that God holds the future in His hands and that Jesus is “the same yesterday, and today and forever” (Hebrews 13:10). If we will focus on God and His kingdom, the worries and anxieties of life will no longer occupy an exaggerated place of importance (Matthew 6:33). Spend time in prayer and allow the Lord to help you with your pressing burdens. Otherwise, you may, indeed, miss the boat.

Prayer Requests

*Our sympathy goes out to Laura Blake in the passing of her mother, Barbara McManus. There was a graveside service on Saturday (11/6).
 *Many will remember Ann Bowie. She passed away earlier in the week. Her visitation and funeral were Saturday (11/6)
 *Curtis Terry's hip replacement surgery was successful. Prayers for a speedy recovery.
 *Stephanie Phillips surgery went well on Wednesday. Keep her in your prayers as she recovers. She is not sure how long she will be at UAMS.
 *Continue to keep Marilyn Koone; Michelle Koone; Judy Moody; Justin Vandaveer; Dave & Janet Rhyne; and Linda McInturff's brother, Joe, in your prayers.

Spotlight on Missions

We received a report from Joshua Ankiah in South Africa and have posted it on the bulletin board. Read about recent success via contacts from World Bible School. Continue praying for his family and the political climate of the nation. We also received an email with photos from Edwin Inso in the Philippines. Check out his ongoing Bible study with members of the National Police.

PANTRY ITEMS FOR NOVEMBER:

canned soup, jiffy mix, rice, canned vegetables

LAST SUNDAY OF THE MONTH POTLUCKS
