A LITTLE SIN

On the slope of Long's Peak in Colorado lies the ruins of a giant tree. It had stood there for four hundred years. It had been struck by lightning fourteen times. The storms of the years had repeatedly broken over it. It had resisted all of nature's blows. But now it lay in ruin.

A small beetle had entered into that giant tree. The beetle had brought his little friends with him. Although the insect was so small that a man could crush it between his thumb and forefinger, yet with the help of his companions, it felled the forest giant.

Sin is regarded lightly by many in our society. It is frequently the object of humor and ridicule. Yet, even the smallest of sins, as we refer to them in human terms, can produce the most devastating effects. The Bible warns us that the wages of sin is death (Rom. 6:23). It is sin which separates one from God who is the source of all life and goodness (Isa. 59:1-2; Jas. 1:17). It is imperative that we take careful thought and consideration about sin as it influences our lives. We must lay aside sin as we are cleansed by the blood of Jesus Christ (Heb. 12:1-2; Rom. 5:1). Never underestimate the power of sin. Only as we obey the truth will the blood of Jesus purify our souls and enable us to live strong and healthy lives in the sight of God (1 Pet. 1:22; 1 Jn. 1:7).
