God's Provision – Man's Faith

Before undertaking any important task, one must first determine if he has the necessary equipment to complete the job. Counting the cost ahead of time can prevent many of the problems which so often take us by surprise. Nothing is so disheartening as beginning a job only to leave it unfinished because of inadequate planning.

Following Jesus demands self-denial and resolve to take up His cross every day (Lk. 9:23). This requires counting the cost of discipleship. Jesus said, "No one, after putting his hand to the plow and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God" (Lk. 9:62). It is imperative that the Christian life be entered into with careful thought and deliberation. Only then, can we love God and His kingdom the way we should (1 Jn. 2:15-17; Mt. 6:33; 22:37-39).

While counting the cost is vital, the success of our Christian walk will ultimately be determined by our faith in the power and provision of God. Our Father has provided "all things pertaining to life and godliness" (2 Pet. 1:3). God has equipped us for "every good work" (2 Tim. 3:17). He has promised to "supply all [our] needs according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus" (Ph. 4:19). And, He is able to do "exceedingly abundantly beyond all that we ask or think" (Eph. 3:20). With promises such as these, we are able to say with the apostle Paul: "I can do all things through Him who strengthens me" (Ph. 4:13).

In the shadow of our own wisdom and power, the Christian life may seem like an overwhelming calling. But, in the light of God's blessings in Christ, the toils of self-sacrifice are swallowed up in the joys of victory. God will be gracious enough to supply the power and equipment if we will be faithful to supply the trust and obedience.
