A FRIEND IN JESUS

Friendship is one of our deepest longings. Yet, we are often at a loss to know how to go about fulfilling the need. Fortunately, God's word gives us some important principles related to friendship. Solomon writes, "A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity" (Prov. 17:17). Later, he adds, "There is a friend who sticks closer than a brother" (18:24). Such friendship is a rare and beautiful thing. A friend is someone who loves us in spite of our weaknesses. Someone has said, "He who seeks a friend without a fault remains without one." A friend does not easily give up, but seeks to encourage and strengthen. If you cannot lean on a friend, who can you lean on? Adversity often reveals the identity of our true friends. A friend will not give up on us even when we have given up on ourselves. A friend will remain loyal when being loyal is not popular. A friend will believe and expect the best of us and our friendship. What a blessing are true friends!

Everyone has the potential of developing lasting friendships. This is especially true in our relationship with God. Remarkable, indeed, is the statement describing Abraham in James 2:23, where the inspired writer tells us that Abraham was a "friend of God." Imagine God as your friend! Can you think of anyone who would be more loyal, dependable, or caring? God sent His Son to make it possible for us to be His friends. Sin had made us enemies. But, the death of Christ, when accepted in obedient faith, makes us His friends. Jesus says, "You are My friends, if you do what I command you" (Jn. 15:14). Because we have found a friend in Jesus, we need never be alone.
