BE A WORKER FOR THE LORD!

As a young boy, I always wondered about Labor Day. I knew it marked the beginning of the school year. Classrooms were not air-conditioned in those days but neither were our homes. Yes, we did walk to school, uphill both ways! But, I digress. The point is that I never thought much about Labor Day and never thought to ask. I wonder if our children have unasked questions about our faith? It's worth exploring.

But, concerning Labor Day, it seems to have grown out of circumstances existing during the Industrial Revolution, when workers began to form unions in protest to low wages and long hours. Today, Labor Day is celebrated in recognition of the achievements and contributions of American workers. So far removed from the struggles of the late 1800's, Labor Day has become for many just another three-day holiday weekend.

As Christians, we need a sense of recognition and achievement as we labor in the Lord's vineyard. If we are working for the world's approval, we will be sadly disappointed. In fact, Jesus pronounced a woe upon those of whom the world speaks well (Lk. 6:46). On the other hand, the Lord's approval means everything to us. Our works should be done to bring glory to God (Mt. 5:16). If we seek the praise of men, we have no reward (Mt. 6:1). God will not forget our work of love (Heb. 6:10). Our work is the greatest work of all. Therefore, we must do the Lord's work with a sense of urgency unmatched by the world. Jesus said, "night is coming when no one can work (Jn. 9:4). We want to hear our Master say, "Well done, good and faithful slave" (Mt. 25:21). Be a worker for the Lord! -- Glen Elliott --

BIBLE QUIZ: Matthew 11:1-10

1. How many disciples did Jesus send out to teach and preach?
 2. John the baptizer sent two of his disciples to ask Jesus, "Are You the __ One, or do we look for __?"
 3. "Go and tell John the things which you hear and see: The blind see and the __ walk; the lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear; the dead are raised up and the poor have the __ preached to them."
 4. "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A __ shaken by the __?"
 5. True or False: Jesus confirmed that John was a prophet, and more than a prophet.
- Answers to last week's quiz: sword; father, mother; life, lose; true; ones, disciple
